MILITARY OFFICERS ASSOCIATION OF AMERICA

December 2025

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

As we wind down the year, we can look back to many accomplishments of the chapter. Our numbers have grown with four new members: Janel Rice, Pete Bollinger, Wayne Recknor, and Adam DeSantis. Welcome to you all.

On a sad note, we marked the passing of Walt Duzzny, Rob and Anna Hanni, Linda Shurtleff and William Meshot.

The chapter was awarded the another MOAA Five Star Level of Excellence Award and two Five Star Level Marvin Harris Communications Awards for our newsletter, edited by Florence Hosler and our Website, managed by Bruce Bille, and a $2,500 MOAA Community Grant secured through the efforts of Joe Mersol for Youngstown Blue Coats.

Our monthly meetings have drawn between 25 and 35 in attendance. Not bad considering all the other activities our members participate in. We were provided with a variety of topics delivered by extremely knowledgeable speakers. Our chapter is vibrant and alive, focusing on providing informative meetings and programs.

To top things off our year, we recently elected a slate of officers (President Dave Di Talla, 1st Vice President Joe Mersol, and Treasurer Bruce Bille), and board of directors (Florence Hosler, Dave Long, Steve Motika, Ralph DeLucia, Al Lind, and Rod Hosler) to continue to lead and administer the chapter. We are, however, still in need of a second vice president and one more board member to fill out our leadership requirements. So, please consider stepping up to fill these vacancies.

I would be remiss if I didn't comment on our recent Christmas Party and fundraiser which was a resounding success. With only 28 in attendance, we surpassed our donations from last year which is a tribute to the generosity of our members, by raising a total of $1,367 for our Scholarship Fund.

Thank you everyone.

SATURDAY, 06 DECEMBER 2025 CHRISTMAS PARTY AND FUN DRAISER ROLLUP:

MSVC-MOAA hosted its annual Christmas Party and Fund Raise on Saturday, 06 December 2025 at A La Cart Catering in Canfield. It was a fun filled afternoon and a successful fund raising event. The food was great as usual, the gathering of members was equally great and the fundraising was extremely successful. There were 30 members in attendance and we raised a total of $1,367 for the Scholarship Fund account. ($165 raised from the raffle and $1,202 from the blind auction. Not bad for an afternoon of fun and festivities. Thank you all for attending and participating in this noteworthy event.

MSVC-MOAA December Legislative Update From Your Outgoing Legislative Liaison, Joe "One Last SITREP" Mersol

Season's Greetings, MSVC Team!

As we close out 2025, your trusted legislative liaison (me) delivers one final SITREP—peppermint-flavored, lightly sarcastic, and factually accurate.

Thank you for the honor of serving in this role. Now... onto the intel.

1. Protecting Troops & Veterans From the Next Government Shutdown MOAA is pushing protections to ensure military pay and VA benefits do not get interrupted during future shutdown nonsense. Essential services must continue, and MOAA is keeping the pressure on Congress.

2. Off-Base Housing Still a Struggle

Rents around duty stations continue rising faster than morale on payday. BAH hasn't kept pace, and families—especially junior enlisted—are carrying the load. MOAA is pushing for updated allowance calculations.

3. TRICARE Expands Coverage for Alzheimer's Breakthrough Treatment

New treatments are being rolled out, and TRICARE is expanding access. A big step for retirees, caregivers, and families impacted by cognitive decline.

4. Bipartisan Bill Helps Veterans & Military Spouses Get Hired

A rare bipartisan Christmas miracle: new incentives to hire veterans and military spouses, with licensing improvements and employer credits.

5. PCS Support for Military Spouses

PCS moves shouldn't destroy careers. A new House bill strengthens support for spouses during relocations, including employment protections and easier credentialing.

Final Words From Joe

Thank you for trusting me to be your point man for legislation.

Thank you for the humor, camaraderie, and support. Though I'm stepping down, I'm not disappearing..... Merry Christmas, Happy Holidays, and may 2026 treat us better than the last shutdown did.

— Joe Mersol

Final Call to Action

Let Congress hear from the people who actually know what's going on: YOU.

Making a VA Benefits Compensation Claim

By: Nora Durham

Through my involvement with MOAA, I learned about VA Dependency and Indemnity Compensation \(DIC\). As my husband served in Vietnam and was exposed to Agent Orange, it was determined his exposure subsequently caused the heart disease that contributed to his death. This qualified me to receive this benefit. With the help of a local veterans service officer (VSO) and the VA Office of Survivor Assistance, I will receive this tax-free monthly compensation for the rest of my life.

Suppose you are the surviving spouse, child, or parent of a servicemember who died in the line of duty, or the survivor of a veteran who died from a service-related injury or illness. In that case, you might be eligible to receive this tax-free monetary benefit. Visit the VA's website to learn more.

For additional information and support, contact a local VSO if one is available in your community. Not all VSOs are as helpful as others, but I finally found mine.

To prepare for opening a VA claim for disability or other benefits compensation, applicants must possess the following documents:

- Military discharge (DD Form 214) — original or certified copy is best
- Other military service information (branch, dates of service, Reserve or National Guard service dates, etc.)
- Medical records (military and/or civilian) if available, and if applying for a service-connected disability, contact information for civilian medical providers who treated the veteran for military-related illnesses or injuries (i.e., doctors, specialists, hospitals, etc.)
- Bank deposit information (i.e., voided check) — the VA will automatically deposit into this account if benefits are awarded

If the above documents are not available, veterans or surviving kin can request them online at www.archives.gov/veterans.

HAIL AND FAIRWELLS

Farewell: Ralph & Beth Minton have left for the greener pastures of Minnesota, the state bird being the common loon, they will fit in well.

Hail: Colonel Wayne Recknor, Adam DeSantis, Janel Rice, and, Pete Bollinger,

YSU JIM TRESSEL SIGNED FOOTBALL RAFFLE

The YSU Carl Nunziato Veterans Resource Center in conjunction with the YSU Athletics Department has graciously donated a 2023 commemorative YSU football signed by JIM TRESSEL. This signed football will be raffled off at the MSVC Cadet Recognition Night Dinner on 16 April. Raffle tickets will be sold starting at our January through March luncheon meetings and at our 16 April dinner meeting. Proceeds will go toward our ROTC/JROTC Scholarship Fund. This is a great item that will enhance any den or office.

Fun had by all, so excited to get silly, useful, and beautiful gifts!
